Minnesota Department of Education

District Use of Prone Restraint Data
October 1, 2013 – December 31, 2013

Number of Incidents of Prone Restraint

Dates Included in Data Collection	Number of Incidents
August 16, 2011 – January 13, 2012	596
January 14, 2012 – April 14, 2012	360
April 15, 2012 – July 14, 2012	462
July 15, 2012 – October 14, 2012	304
October 15, 2012 – December 31, 2012	639
January 1, 2013 – March 31, 2013	270
April 1, 2013 – June 30, 2013	198
July 1, 2013 – September 30, 2013	124
October 1, 2013 – December 31, 2013	340

Percentage of Students Restrained by Gender*

Gender	Percentage
Male	76%
Female	24%

Percentage of Students Restrained by Race*

Race	Percentage
Caucasian	53%
African American	42%
Hispanic	5%

 Data derived from unique MARSS numbers*

January 2014

Percentage of Students Restrained by Disability Category*

Disability	Percentage
Emotional or Behavioral Disabilities	42%
Autism Spectrum Disorder	35%
Developmental Cognitive Disability	9%
Other Health Disabilities	7%
Severely Multiply Impaired	4%
Specific Learning Disability	3%

Reasons for Use of Prone Restraint

Reasons	Percentages
Protect Others from Injury	82%
Protect Student from Injury	69%
Protect Both Student and Others from Injury	65%

Total Districts Reporting

Dates Included in Data Collection	Number of Districts
August 16, 2011 – January 13, 2012	21
January 14, 2012 – April 14, 2012	12
April 15, 2012 – July 14, 2012	12
July 15, 2011 – October 14, 2012	16
October 15, 2012 – December 31, 2012	11
January 1, 2013 – March 31, 2013	10
April 1, 2013 – June 30, 2013	9
July 1, 2013 – September 30, 2013	10
October 1, 2013 – December 31, 2013	10