Desegregation District Transfers

Minnesota Statutes allow a student at any time during the school year to transfer into or out of a district that has a desegregation plan approved by the commissioner of education. This requirement does not prohibit a district from limiting enrollment of non-residents in a particular grade or school according to criteria approved by the board under provisions of the open enrollment statutes. See Minnesota Statutes, section 124D.03, Subdivision 4.

The table below lists all districts with an approved desegregation plan as of the 2012-2013 school year (FY2013):
