Dual Credit Programs/ Opportunities in Minnesota

Item	AP (Advanced Placement)	IB (International Baccalaureate)	PSEO (Postsecondary Enrollment Options)	Concurrent Enrollment UM & MNSCU ("College in the Schools"- U of M)	CLEP (College-Level Examination Program)
Number of Minnesota Participating Students and/or taking Exam ('11-12)	Eligible: Grades 9-12, public and nonpublic students Students testing: 37,363 Students of Color: 5,904 # Exams: 62,023 # earning 3+ : 40,702 (65.6% of total) Percent increase 2007-2012: Students: 61% Exams: 69%	Eligible: Grades 9-12, public and nonpublic students Students testing: 2,799 Students of Color: 996 # Exams: 6,144 # earning 4+ : 1,575 (26.6 % of total) Percent increase 2007-2012: Students: 70% Exams: 80%	Eligible: * Grades 11-12, public and nonpublic Total Students: 8,583 Total Public Students: 6,353 Students of Color: 1,023 Av. credits/participant: 16.58 Pct increase 2007-12: Students: 8.6% Data does not include postsecondary courses offered through agreements between districts and postsecondary institutions. *Data is FY12; in FY 13, legislation allowed eligible Grade 10 students to enroll in one CTE course through PSEO- there were 32 grade 10 participants in FY13	Eligible: Grades 11-12, public and nonpublic Total Students: 21,695 Students of Color: 1,911 Pct increase 2009-2012: Students: 14%	Eligible: Credit for Prior Learning Program -Adults returning to school -Military service members -Traditional-age college students -Home-schooled students 2005- 2006: 32 students 54 exams - 67% pass rate $4,015 2008-2009: 1,044 students 1,556 exams- 57% $108,920

Item	AP (Advanced Placement)	IB (International Baccalaureate)	PSEO (Postsecondary Enrollment Options)	Concurrent Enrollment UM & MNSCU ("College in the Schools"- U of M)	CLEP (College-Level Examination Program)
Number of Minnesota Participating Schools ('11-12)	AP Public Schools – 219 AP Nonpublic Schools – 43	Diploma Program – 21 Middle Years Program – 18 Primary Years Program – 17	89 MN postsecondary institutions	UM: 4 MNSCU: 21 Only reflects institutions requesting concurrent enrollment aid	2005- 2006: 19 high schools 2008-2009: 135 high schools
	AP	IB	PSEO	Concurrent Enrollment	CLEP
Exam Cost/Tuition Cost per Participant ('11-12)	$87 per exam	$237 first exam $ 96 each add'l exam	16.58 = av. # credits/student $2973= Av. reimbursement/ enrolled student or $179/credit	Cost is negotiated between each district and college or university; charges are on a per credit, per course, or per student basis.	Exam Base Fee: $80 (FY14)
State Fee Reimbursement ('11-12)	$57 per exam Low-income student no cost; College Board provided additional reductions $50 per exam- all non, low income	State Funding: $195 first exam $58 each for 2+ exams Low-income students fully funded	Funding redirected to college/university as indicated above. ($186.36/cr. FY14)	Negotiated with college or university as directed above.	No state reimbursement since 2009
Teacher Training Cost ('11-12)	• Summer Institute Tuition – (Carleton/ Augsburg)- $600 Room and Board -	In state trainings and workshops varied Out-of-State Tuition and	NA	Any costs for teacher training and other costs for teacher participation are covered in each	NA

Item	AP (Advanced Placement)	IB (International Baccalaureate)	PSEO (Postsecondary Enrollment Options)	Concurrent Enrollment UM & MNSCU ("College in the Schools"- U of M)	CLEP (College-Level Examination Program)
	$150 • Univ. Of MN trng.- $180 • Out-of-State Tuition and Room and Board varies according to institution • Teachers trained- 1,062	Room and Board varies according to institution Room and Board - $150 Out-of-State – up to $950		contract. Each teacher receives 22 hours of training each year.
Curriculum Development	The College Board develops standards and guidelines for AP courses and teachers develop the curriculum for the course.	The International Baccalaureate Organization (IBO) develops standards and guidelines for each course and teachers develop the curriculum for the course.	Courses developed by college or university instructors	Courses developed by college or university instructors and provided to high school instructors.	No defined curriculum. Students may take a course or study on their own and then take the CLEP exam to demonstrate knowledge .
Exam Development	The College Board develops the AP exams	IBO develops the IB exams	College or university instructors develop the exams.	College or university and high school instructors develop the exams	The College Board (CLEP Division) develops the CLEP exam.
Minnesota Colleges Acceptance of Credits	Nearly all postsecondary institutions provide credit policies for AP.	Many postsecondary institutions provide credit policies for IB.	Students earn high school and college credit immediately upon the successful completion of the course.	Students earn high school and college credit immediately upon the successful completion of the course.	Nearly all post-secondary institutions provide credit policies for CLEP exams.

Item	AP (Advanced Placement)	IB (International Baccalaureate)	PSEO (Postsecondary Enrollment Options)	Concurrent Enrollment UM & MNSCU ("College in the Schools"- U of M)	CLEP (College-Level Examination Program)
			Grades appear on the college or university transcript. All courses are approved for degree credit	Grades appear on the college or university transcript. Courses are approved for degree credit	